THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI RAM PUJAN PATEL): (a) and (b) Efforts are constantly being made to increase the availability of essential commodities including tea kerosene and cement. The following steps have been taken.

(i) Tea—Tea auctions play an important role in the marketing of tea and 75 per cent of the tea produced by tea gardens in the four principal tea producing States have to be disposed of through auctions. No withdrawal is permitted from the auctions which is for domestic sale, thus enabling an increase in the availability of tea to the domestic buyer.

(ii) Kerosene—The requirement of kerosene of the States/UTs is assessed by allowing suitable growth over the previous year.

(iii) Cement—For increasing production and making cement available in adequate quantities, schemes for increasing the installed capacity of cement are being liberally approved. Further, Government is closely monitoring the infrastructural support to the cement Industry.

(d) whether employment generation targets were achieved; if so, the details thereof, State-wise; and

(e) whether any survey has been made about the gainful and lasting nature of the employment so generated, if so, the findings thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI UPENDRA NATH VERMA): (a) State/Union Territory-wise details of Central resources provided and entitlement of resources under Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY) during the year 1989-90 are given in the Annexure.

(b) Allocation of resources under JRY were made on the poverty criteria i.e. proportion of rural poor living in the State/UTs. to the total rural poor in the country.

However, exceptions were made in case of island and small States/UTs. as the strict application of the criteria would have meant drastically reduced allocations to them under JRY as compared to the Central grants provided to them in the preceding year under the erstwhile wage employment programmes of the National Rural Employment Programme (NREP) and Rural Landless Employment Guarantee Programe (RLEGP). The allocation in respect of such States/UTs was increased to ensure its comparability with the previous year's allocation under NREP/RLEGP. States which benefited on account of this were Goa, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Manipur, Andaman & Nicobar, Chandigarh, Dadra & Nagar Haveli, Daman & Diu, Lakshadweep and Pondicherry. A total additional allocation of Rs. 16.45 crores, over and above their entitlement, was given to these States/UTs. This amount was proportionately (more or
